NO. 39

HON. GEORGE G. GILBERT.

The democratic nominee for Congress in this district, was born in Spencer county 48 years ago and when quite a young man was elected county attorney. Several years afterwards he was chosen senator from the district composed of Shelby, Nelson and Spencer, and in that body brought himself prominently before the people of the State. He is a good stump speaker and has a way of ingratiating himself in public favor. His campaign will not begin till September, when we predict that he will awaken such an interest in his race that will insure his triumphant election.

Dr. J. D. Woods says of Hon. Gilbert in the Warren County Courier: He represented his district in the State Senate 10 or 12 years ago going from Spencer county, where he then resided. He was unknown in politics and was given the chairmanship of the committee on printing, as insignificant committee as belonged to the Senate. A debate sprung up in the Senate two or three weeks after the session opened in which Al Berry, one of the finest speakers in the Senate, made a very able and eloquent speech. Gilbert was opposed to the bill under discussion and replied to Berry in one of the finest speeches made during the session. He fairly electrified the Senate with his logic and his rich garnishment and fancy and beautiful gatherings from poets and history. From that day George Gilbert was forgotten as chairman of the printing committee, and took rank with the foremost senators on all law committees and in all general legislation.

LANCASTER.

The Misses Ballou, of Stanford, were with their brother, H. M. Ballou, Sunday. Miss Eliza Smith has returned from a visit to Lexington. M. D. Hughes is at home from the mountains for a few days' rest. Lieut. Kennedy came up from Chickamauga as a guard of honor with the remains of James Johnston. Messrs. E. G. Dick and Gus Hofmann, of Crab Orchard Springs, accompanied by a number of the Springs guests, spent Saturday here shopping. Maj. W. H. Collier, of the 4th Kentucky Volunteers, spent several days with the homefolks last week. Misses Pearl and Bertha Smith, of Lexington, and Lizzie Settles, of Danville, were the guests of Miss Lottie Bettie last week. Miss Bessie Bullock, of Shelbyville, is the charming guest of Miss Mary Rout. Bert Spencer ran down from Louisville Sunday to see the homefolks.

James Johnston died at Chickamauga of typhoid fever. His remains were brought here and interred in the Lancaster Cemetery on last Saturday. He was a son of the late Joseph Johnston and was 23 years old. He was among the first to respond to his country's call from this county and as this company was not raised as quickly as he wished, he went to Lexington and enlisted; but it was not written that he should fall by a Spanish bullet. He was stricken with typhoid and after a short illness he died. No more fitting testimonial to his popularity at home and his patriotism could have been given than the funeral which was given him. Undertaker Rigney went to Chattanooga and prepared the remains for burial. He arrived here with them at 6 A. M. Saturday morning. They lay in state in the cemetery vault until 11 A. M. At that hour the banks and business houses closed and headed by the band our citizens proceeded to the cemetery to pay homage to Garrard's first Cuban war hero. After a few remarks by Revs. Faulconer and Walden all that was earthly of James Johnston was laid to rest.

COOL WISCONSIN RESORTS.—The Monon Route via Chicago is the proper line. Write E. H. Bacon, D. P. A., Monon Route, Louisville, for pamphlets, rates and time tables for all resorts in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan. Information cheerfully given and services of an agent to meet all parties on arrival of trains at Louisville and Chicago rendered free.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Gum Shoe Hunter is coming home from Guatemala in August to set up the pins for John Rhea to knock down.

Hardin county will hold a primary Aug. 1 to nominate a democrat candidate for jailer. There are 11 candidates.

Hon. G. G. Gilbert was given an ovation on his return to Shelbyville from the convention at Danville, which nominated him for congress.

A dispatch from Shelbyville says that the republicans are trying to induce George Nicholas, of that place, to make the race for the nomination for congress.

Judge W. S. Pryor, chairman of the board of election commissioners, says that the board will not hear personal applications for appointment as county commissioners. They must apply by letter.

Hon. Augustus E. Willson, of Louisville, was made vice president of the League of Republican Clubs and W. R. Ramsey, of London, National committeeman from Kentucky in the meeting at Omaha. Hereafter the clubs will meet biennially.

State Inspector C. W. Lester opened his campaign for the republican nomination for appellate judge of the Third District at Somerset yesterday. Circuit Judge W. W. Jones, of Adair, and ex-Congressman John W. Lewis, of Springfield, are also announced.

The State printing contracts have been awarded to the George Fetter Printing Company, of Louisville, for the first-class, and the Courier-Job Printing Company for the second-class. The bids were 42 and 47 per cent. respectively of the maximum allowed by law.

The Richmond Register says that Patrick Henry Sullivan's speech nominating Gov. McCreary was so well received that after it was found that McCreary could not win, he was suggested as compromise candidate and in a private poll came within two votes of the requisite number to nominate.

The democrats have named seven of the 11 congressional candidates and they are as follows: First District—Charles K. Wheeler; Second—Henry D. Allen; Third—John S. Rhea; Fourth—David H. Smith; Seventh—E. Settle; Eighth—George G. Gilbert; Tenth—Thomas Y. Fitzpatrick. The 5th, 6th, 9th and 11th are yet to be chosen.

It is a matter of history that Shelby county in her 100 years has never furnished but one Congressman. He was James C. Spragg and served from 1841 to 1843. In a fight with a congressman from Pennsylvania Spragg had an ear bitten off and probably for that reason never returned to the county that had honored him.

The defeat of Mr. McCreary for congress in the Eighth Kentucky district is generally regretted in Washington by men of all parties. While in congress Mr. McCreary was able and efficient and never tired of doing favors for his friends. This made him popular in and out of the House. Had he been a member of the 56th Congress he would have had strong support for speaker, and if certain expected complications had arisen he would most likely have been elected.—Washington Cor. Courier-Journal.

SEA-SHORE EXCURSIONS.—The Chesapeake and Ohio Ry. will run the following excursions to the Sea-shore on dates named. The tickets will be good going on regular trains, to which necessary sleeping cars will be attached. On July 19th and August 11th, to Atlantic City and Cape May, via Washington, round trip rate only $14.00 from Lexington and correspondingly low rates from other Central Kentucky points. Tickets good 11 days returning. On July 28th, a round trip rate of $13. will be made to Old Point Comfort, Va. Tickets good going on regular trains and good returning 12 days. This is the best time to visit Old Point, owing to the interesting military maneuvers. Send in your name for sleeping car space or for any information desired. Geo. W. Barney, D. P. A. Lexington, Kentucky.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

The L. & N. will let contracts this week for a million dollar depot at Nashville.

CRAB ORCHARD.

The distillery at Crab Orchard closed down Saturday.

Messrs. McClure & Napier shipped three car-loads of slop-fed cattle to Cincinnati Monday. They were in fine shape to bring a fancy price.

The L. & N. has entirely renovated its track through this place this summer and if an accident occurs it certainly can't be the fault of the track.

Mrs. Mattie V. Kirby, assisted by a class of young ladies and a number of little folks, will give an entertainment at the Christian church in Crab Orchard on Wednesday night, 29th. Half of the net proceeds will be given to the churches. The program includes battle hymns, pantomimes, tableaux, solos and other music, and will be well worth the price of admission.

Misses Bella Haldeman and Jean Buchanan returned to Louisville Saturday after a visit of several weeks at Mrs. Jane Buchanan's. Quite a number of Crab Orchard ladies and gentlemen spent a delightful evening at Green Briar Springs Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Wright are well fitted for hotel business and know exactly how to entertain their guests. Misses Lina Kennedy and Mary Saunders went to Mt. Vernon Saturday after a pleasant stay of a week at Dripping Springs. Miss Rhoda Gilbert and sister, of Madison county, are visiting their sister, Mrs. T. J. Culton. Manager Gus Hoffmann of Crab Orchard Springs, is getting ready to entertain the Gentry family reunion. He has rooms already engaged for 500 people. Mrs. Potter, of Manchester, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Redd, Jr. Mrs. Mary Slaughter returned from a visit to Richmond and vicinity the latter part of the week, much improved in health. Rev. A. M. Lambert has an attack of fever and is quite sick. Mrs. Annie Black, of Knoxville, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. M. E. Fish, went to Richmond Saturday to visit Dr. Black's relatives. Mrs. Lee Crady and friend, from Danville, are visiting Mrs. Joe McClure. The Misses Phillips, who have been visiting at Mr. D. B. Edmiston's, returned to their home at Monticello Saturday. Mr. Harry Thomas and sister, Bessie, of Indianapolis, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Alice Newland. Miss Annie Cochran, of Garrard, is spending a few weeks at Mr. Chris McClure's.

ENJOYABLE PICNIC,
BY M'CORMACKS SUNDAY SCHOOL.

A few weeks ago it was decided to have a picnic for the Sunday school at McCormacks and T. J. Hill, Miss Mary Carter and Mrs. Wallace McKittrick were appointed a committee to select the place and arrange the date for it. The lovely park of Mr. Columbus Bishop was chosen and July 15th was the day named. What a lovely day it proved to be. At an early hour many young folks, and older ones too, were gathered there. What a beautiful scene was presented. For once all cares seemed forgotten and all hearts light and merry. A lovelier place could scarcely have been chosen. The broad spreading maples upon whose branches the frost of many winters have fallen and which stand so closely together there afforded ample protection from the sun. All enjoyed the delightful "rest under the shade of the trees." The morning was spent playing games and other pastimes. Shortly afternoon a delightful lunch was served. "And they did eat and were filled; and they took up of the fragments that remained many baskets full," and the neighborhood sustained her reputation for liberal hospitality. After lunch Mr. A. J. Earp, Stanford's talented artist, requested all present to remain near the table until he could take a picture of the scene. This part of the program was quite a surprise, but nevertheless much enjoyed by the young folks. Afterwards Elder David Hannah, the much loved pastor of McCormacks church, called the people together and recited "Jimmy Butler and the Owl" in a most thrilling and tragic manner. He was so heartily encored that he soon returned and further delighted all by the pleasant way in which he recited "Tim Murphy's Courtship." Late in the afternoon the crowd reluctantly began to leave. On all sides we heard it remarked: "I never enjoyed a picnic so much before" and "the day has been too short." The thanks of all present are due Mr. Bishop for the use of his park and many other courtesies extended them. We feel that the persons who planned this day of enjoyment and labored for its success have ample occasion to feel repaid for their efforts when they remember the many hearts that were made glad.

MRS. T. J. HILL.

MRS. JULIA PENNY.

Wife of Capt. W. B. Penny, of the 6th U. S. Volunteers, is one of the prettiest of the four handsome daughters of the late Jacob M. Cooper and is very proud of her soldier husband. When a mere child she fell in love with him and at 15 eloped to Jeffersontown and became his wife. Three children have resulted from the very happy union, which, we hope, will not be sundered by war's ravages. Mrs. Penny is preparing to go to Knoxville to see her husband, whose regiment is expected to be included in the expedition to Port Rico.

DANVILLE.

The Boyle County Teacher's Institute will meet at Parksville July 25th. Anderson & Spillman and Cogar & Co. are shipping wheat every day. J. C. Caldwell has delivered a good crop sold last year at 70¢. J. W. Redd, professor of Greek and German in Centre College, has remodeled his old home on 3rd street until it presents a very handsome appearance. The Deaf & Dumb Institute is erecting a very neat and convenient home on 2d street, just below the main building, to be occupied by Prof. and Mrs. Day.

Dr. Sutherland preached his farewell sermon to the congregation of the 2d Presbyterian church Sunday morning and also conducted the union services Sunday evening.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Danville, Lancaster & Nicholasville Turnpike Company, the following new officers were elected: President and Superintendent, G. N. Gean; Sec. & Treas., James Spillman; Directors, Jno. W. Yerkes, D. B. Jones, James Adams, Ben Wright, J. H. Dunn, W. J. Wilmore and J. W. Poor.

A fire alarm was sent in Friday at 5 o'clock, which proved to be a blaze in the cellar of Kinnaird & McGoodwin's grocery store. It was extinguished without very serious damage. One of the men while examining the oil tank, in the cellar, lighted a match, the end of which fell into some combustible material causing the fire.

Over an eating stand at a railroad station, I recently saw this sign: "Green Apple Pies and Twisted Rolls." I at once thought of my experience with green apples and twisted rolls and wondered if the fellow eating them now would get the same kind of a twist. Every boy should fully appreciate the innocent warning the sign gave.

Hugh B. Rowland, after visiting friends in Woodford county, has returned home. Miss Jane Todd Watson, of Lexington, is the guest of Miss Virginia Bowman. Mrs. Dr. Best, of Millersburg, is spending a few days with Miss Alice Barbee. Mrs. Will Harris has gone to Crab Orchard. Miss Susan Lee McElroy, of Lexington, left Saturday after a month's visit to Miss Susan Rowland. Miss Elizabeth Van Meter is visiting friends in Bourbon. Miss Jean Cecil left yesterday to join the house party of Miss Mary Gray at Frankfort and attend Miss Christine Bradley's ball at the Capital Hotel Wednesday night. Misses Mamie and Annie Lanier and Margaret Sallee returned Saturday, after two weeks visit in Chattanooga.

HIGH BRIDGE CAMP MEETING.—The camp grounds will be full of interest this year with lively programs, fine speakers, excellent music and crowds of delighted and appreciative people. Low rates during the camp meeting and special low Sunday rates for Sundays, July 24th and 31st, will be made via the Queen & Crescent Route. Special Sunday train service will be run July 24th and 31st, for convenience of patrons between Somerset and High Bridge. Ask your ticket agent for full particulars, or see small bills.

Special excursion to Chautauqua, N. Y., July 8th to 29th at extremely low rates via the "Big Four." For tickets and full information call on agents, or address the undersigned. E. O. McCormick, Pass. Traffic Mgr., Warren J. Lynch, Ass. Gen. Pass. & Tkt. Agt., Cincinnati, O.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JULY 19, 1898

W. P. WALTON.

Democratic Nominee For Congress.
HON. G. G. GILBERT,
Of Shelby County.

THOUGH Santiago was reported as surrendered Thursday it was not until 9 A. M. Sunday that the Spanish flag was hauled down and the stars and stripes run up in its stead. Gen. Toral began as soon as the commissioners appointed to arrange the details met, to raise new points and succeeded in standing off the whole layout till Sunday. At first he demanded that his men be permitted to retain their arms, but it was refused and then he began to entreat and drew a picture of the humiliation his army would suffer, if it was sent back to Spain without their arms. The commissioners wanted to yield and Gen. Shafter recommended it, but the authorities at Washington very properly declined to make the concession, saying that under no conditions would it be granted and Toral had to quit. The commissioners, however, promised to use their endeavors to permit the troops to retain their arms. The sending of the 24,000 men back to Spain is a heavy undertaking, the lowest estimate received being $45 a man, but it is cheaper than keeping and guarding them perhaps for months. The surrender includes about a third of Cuba with all the war material embraced in it. It looks like a big step towards the end of hostilities, but the Spanish are persistent and seem never to know when they have enough.

After Gen. Toral had formally surrendered Sunday by handing his sword to Gen. Shafter, who promptly handed it back, and after his troops had stacked arms, "Old Glory" was unfurled from the governor's palace in very impressive scenes. All the American soldiers uncovered, bands played the Star-Spangled Banner and a battery boomed a salute. After seeing the defenses around Santiago, Gen. Shafter says it would have cost 5,000 lives to have taken the town. He finds that the city had been sacked by the Spaniards and that many people are starving. Gen. Chambers McGibbon, of Pennsylvania, has been appointed temporary military governor of Santiago.

THROUGH the means of a matrimonial agency, Miss Bellamy, a pretty girl from Buchanan, this State, began a correspondence with Robert Orrey, of Kewanee, Ill., which resulted in an engagement. The man represented himself as young and wealthy and she gladly accepted his invitation to come and marry him. Saturday she went, she saw, she conquered, her desire to marry him, for instead of as represented, he was over 60 years of age and had several grown children besides. She gave him a very large slice of her mind and returned home a very disgusted and perhaps a wiser girl. Her experience ought to teach other girls who think they can not wait for the right man to come along that it is best in the long run to do so, and that matrimonial agencies are inventions of the devil, manipulated by unscrupulous scamps, who make a living out of the gullible.

S. J. PUGH has made his calling sure for a renomination for congress in the 9th district. His opponent, Mayor Cox, of Maysville, only got his own county, while Pugh took the other 12 at the county conventions Saturday. The convention to nominate will be held at Greenup today. Hon. J. N. Kehoe, of Mason, has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination and the chances are that Mr. Pugh is serving his last term in congress.

THE city judge of Louisville fined a white woman named Mattie White $30 and put her under bond of $1,000 for a year for being drunk on the street. The item recites that she had on a Mother Hubbard and that doubtless caused the severity of the penalty. There ought to be a general law making it a fine of $1,000 and 30 days in jail for any woman to appear outside of her room in one of those hideous garments.

EFFORTS are being made to induce Senator John Bennett, of Richmond, to become a candidate for congress in this district. Davison recognizing the futility of a race against Gilbert "has flew the coop" so that a man with money, and a good deal of it, to put up, can be pitted against him.

IT has been announced half dozen times or more that Gen. Fitzhugh Lee would be sent to Port Rico, but now it is said Gen. Brooke is to go. Gen. Lee is too popular now to suit McKinley, who will keep him in the back ground as much as possible.

THERE is much conjecture as to what Commodore Dewey wants with the 60,000 pounds of soap he has made a requisition for, but that's an easy one. He is going to have the dirty dons wash themselves for once.

THE most readable description of the K. P. A. outing was written by that wit and genius, Editor James M. Allen, of the Cynthiana Democrat.

THE attempt of the German warship Irene, to prevent Aguinaldo from landing at Grande Island may lead to complications with Germany and it is predicted that she will have to disown the action or be called to task. As soon as the American ship came on the scene in Subic Bay the Irene slipped her cable and ran, leaving her anchor in the bay, thereby confessing that she was doing what she knew she had no business to. Germany has all along shown too much friendliness to Spain and she may be made to regret it.

THE long, eventful and useful life of Gen. J. S. Williams, known as "Cerro Gordo," came to peaceful end after several weeks' illness, at his home at Mt. Sterling, Sunday, in the 80th year of his age. A hero in two wars and a wheel-horse in peace, he goes to his reward with the plaudits of all the people.

WATSON SAILS THIS WEEK.
LESS THAN THREE HUNDRED CASES OF YELLOW FEVER AT SANTIAGO.

PORT RICAN EXPEDITION SAILING.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Orders have been issued for Watson to go against Spain by end of this week.

Fighting is still going on at Guantanamo, Spaniards there not having been notified of the surrender.

Official Santiago advices show less than 300 yellow fever cases.

WASHINGTON, July 18, 3:25 P. M. Port Rican expedition is off. Gen. Miles with regulars and artillery left Siboney on the Yale. Two brigades embarking at Charleston and 13,000 at Tampa. First and Second division from Chickamauga, embracing 1st and 3rd Kentucky are included.

WAR TALK.

Admiral Sampson's last bombardment of Santiago destroyed 57 buildings.

And now Spain is threatening to send a fleet against American coast cities, but the bluff can't work, because she has none to send.

The Government has advertised for sealed proposals for the transportation to Spain of 1,000 Spanish officers and 21,000 enlisted men.

Gen. Toral says his loss in the battle of July 1 and 2 was very heavy, including many officers, and adds that he did not have a general or colonel left.

The mines have been removed from the mouth of Santiago harbor. A gunboat was found inside and 200 more of Admiral Cervera's men surrendered.

Chaplain Jones, of the Texas, belongs to the school of fighting parsons. When the great fight began he went among the gunners and told them to remember the Maine.

Nearly 60,000 of the 75,000 volunteers asked for by the president in his second call for troops have been recruited, and most of them have been mustered into service.

Three monitors have been ordered to San Juan, Porto Rico. They will bombard the fortifications and pave the way for the army. A blockade of the entire island is to be proclaimed.

Sewing girls in Bray's pants factory at Louisville have been sewing notes to soldiers in the pockets of trousers made in the factory, and are now receiving answers from Chickamauga.

Barcelona is panic-stricken, expecting an American squadron to appear at any moment and open fire. The banks are removing their specie and merchants their goods to safe places in the country.

It is probable that Watson's first demonstration will be against a port in the Northern part of Spain, with a view to bringing Admiral Camara into the Atlantic, where his destruction will be certain.

John M. Blandin, who was officer of the deck on the Maine when she was destroyed in Havana, died at Baltimore as a result of the shock to his nervous system sustained on the fatal night of the explosion.

Spain has already lost 21 ships of war, with an aggregate of 44,940 tons, and 21 merchant vessels of 32,400 tons. The United States has lost no ships of war, has had only one, the torpedo boat Winslow, disabled and none of its merchantmen has been captured.

There are 92 cases of typhoid fever at Camp Thomas, and Chief Surgeon Hart says it is difficult to determine the cause. James Johnston, of Lancaster, brother of W. McC. Johnston, member of Capt. Duncan's company, died of it.

A dispatch from Chickamauga says from the telegrams and letters attached to requests for furloughs, it would seem that half the mothers, fathers and sisters of the Second Kentucky Regiment are dying in Kentucky. The majority of these are believed to be fevers and work a great hardship on the poor fellows whose parents are on the brink of the grave, for in rare instances are furloughs granted.

When troops leave Santiago every man will be disinfected before being allowed to board a ship. It is probable that the men who have been exposed to fever in the Santiago campaign will, after five days' isolation in mountain camps, be taken to some camping ground in New England, for the two-fold purpose of enabling them to recuperate and in order to avoid danger of a yellow fever epidemic in the South.

A dispatch in our last told of the surrender of Santiago with its troops and land and harbor defenses. This was good enough, but later news made it better. The surrender includes about a third of Cuba which embraces Spanish troops at Palma, Sagua, Guantanamo and practically the entire Fourth corps in Eastern Cuba. The territory surrendered by Gen. Toral includes a population exceeding 125,000 when the country is in its normal state. It includes the important cities of Santiago de Cuba, Guantanamo, Sagua de Tana and Baracoa. It is exceedingly rich in mineral, sugar and coffee. The large iron and copper mines at Juragua, Baiquiri and vicinity are owned by American companies. The surrender also includes the removal of all mines in the Santiago harbor and the delivery of all guns, fortifications and munitions of war, together with the numerous gunboats and other small Spanish vessels in the various harbors of the surrendered territory. The United States will send Gen. Toral's men back to Spain. The prisoners number between 20,000 and 25,000. The 24th infantry and the 9th and 10th cavalry—all colored—will remain at Santiago for garrison duty, and the 25th will be sent from Dry Tortugas, giving four regiments of regulars, all colored. Besides these the 1st and 2d Immune regiments, both white, will be sent.

BRIEF NEWS NOTATION.

R. T. Rowland, aged 78, of Eddyville, was almost chewed to death by a mad dog.

Thomas Howard, of Smithfield, Tenn., shot himself in the head when he lost heavily at cards.

At Vanceburg a family horse viciously attacked Johnny Ringer, aged 11, and mortally wounded him.

The Northampton, of the Old Dominion line, burned at Norfolk. She cost $65,000 and was totally destroyed.

The bank of Murray has started the bank in Western Kentucky by supplying its depositors with stamped checks.

The commissioner of internal revenue has decided that all telegraphic messages must be stamped by the senders.

One death has resulted in the troops sent to Mayfield. Ed Diamond, of Lexington, who was accidentally shot, is dead.

William Buford, a carpenter, fell from a fourth-story window to the ground at Bowling Green and escaped unhurt.

Gov. Bradley refused to interfere in the case of Clarence Vinegar, the uxoricide, and he was hung at Georgetown yesterday.

Jim Mitchell struck a white man at Knoxville, who cursed him, knocking him from the wagon, which ran over and killed him.

Mrs. James Melvin was shot and mortally wounded by a man whom she found under the bed, when she made her customary exploration.

Whitecappers took Charles Pate from the officers at Cloverport and whipped him within an inch of his life for beating his wife.

While playing Buffalo Bill, Charlie Powell, of Nelson county, was perhaps fatally shot by a younger brother, who didn't know the pistol was loaded.

By the explosion of a boiler in the Niagara Works at Buffalo, N. Y., the building was wrecked and eight persons were killed and one fatally injured.

The remains of Misses Stella and Maud Black, sisters who died in Georgia, were shipped to Lexington, their former home, and buried in the same casket.

The subscriptions to the new 3 per cent. war loan of $200,000,000, including the offers made by syndicates, amounted to $1,200,000,000, or six times the amount of the issue.

Mrs. Minerva Hellard is in jail at McKee, Jackson county, charged with poisoning her husband, who died suddenly. A post mortem examination showed arsenic in the man's stomach.

A "Frisco passenger train was held up and robbed near Andover, Kas., by two masked men, who shot and mortally wounded a man who tried to notify the train officials. They got several hundred dollars.

It is reported from Victoria, B. C., that Butler and three brothers, of Paris, Ky., have arrived there with $50,000 in gold, taken from the Klondike, with 40 others in the party, who have between $1,000 and $10,000 each. The Butlers estimate this year's Klondike yield at $20,000,000.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

John Humphrey, a bachelor of 68, and Miss Lucy Wiley, aged 70, were joined heart and hand at Pine Grove, this State. They had courted for nearly 50 years.

FRUIT Jars, Cans and Jelly Glasses at Warren & Shanks'.

THE school per capita has been fixed at $2.30, an increase of 10 cents over last year. There are about 710,000 children in the State, so it will take nearly two millions to pay the amount.

TEN years ago on the 15th of July Mrs. W. H. Lunsford presented her husband with a boy. On the 15th of July, 1898, she gave him another boy, which W. W. White says he has named Dewey.

THE examiners, Miss Kate Bogle and L. R. Hughes, passed on 12 applicants for teacher's certificates Friday and Saturday. Two lost out entirely, while out of the ten remaining only one got a first-class certificate.

THE signal service predicts high temperature for today.

J. H. BAUGHMAN & CO. will store wheat again. See them.

GO to Cash & McClure's for 4X coffee at nine cents.

PRESENTS on exhibition. Sherbert served free to our lady friends from 4 to 9 P. M., Tuesday July 19th. Come to Warren & Shanks'.

THE Louisville Store is spreading itself. Read the list of things that Manager T. D. Raney will sell you almost for a song and go and sing to him some.

FREE.—Ladies will be admitted to the Hustonville fair the first day—Wednesday, Aug. 10—free of charge, and they are extended a cordial welcome to be on hand.

READ AND HEED.—We want every cent that is due us and unless you pay up, your paper will be stopped and the account placed for collection. We are going to quit the credit business or quit business entirely.

GUARDS.—An application of the president of the Richmond & Lancaster pike, after the county Judge had refused to act, Judge Sauley on Saturday, made an order granting two guards for the gate nearest Lancaster.

DOUGLAS.—N. Peyton Douglas, aged 72, died at his home near Maywood on the 15th of locked bowels and was buried in the family grave yard. He leaves four daughters, but his wife has been dead some years. His brother, Peyton Douglas, died a month or two ago.

MR. DAVISON told the Lexington papers that he was not a candidate, but that the republicans are jubilant over the nomination Mr. Gilbert, as he is far easier to beat than Gov. McCreary would have been. The sly old fox said finally if his party insisted on his running, he did not know what he might do.

TO A NATIONAL.—The Secretary of State having decided that the Farmers Bank & Trust Co. can not reduce its capital $100,000 or any other sum under the constitution, the directors of the bank have called a meeting of the stockholders for July 27 to vote on the question of liquidation and the establishment of a $100,000 National bank.

FOR THE EXCELSIOR.—The Excelsior is to be published weekly at $1.00.

THE trial of James Gadberry for the murder of Henry Robinson, colored, ended after the speeches Friday in a verdict of acquittal. This seems to have been the verdict of most everyone who heard the testimony. A juror told us that it was the unanimous opinion of the jurors, on the evidence presented, that George Hill fired the fatal shot.

The court finally adjourned Saturday morning after 20 days actual sitting in a term extending from June 13 to July 16. Sheriff S. M. Owens was allowed $40 for attendance on the court and Jailer DeBord $80 for his services during the term. There were two special grand juries, besides the regular, during the term, the killing of three people within a month, making them necessary. This ran the jury expenses over the average and it foots up $879.62.

SECOND KENTUCKY

HAD MONEY TO BURN FOR A FEW DAYS.
CAMP THOMAS, GA., July 15.—The boys of the Second Kentucky, as well as the whole "turn out" of Camp Thomas, have gotten rid of that tired feeling and it didn't take Hood's Saraparilla to do it either. Uncle Sam was the fellow. Pay day has come and gone and not a few are anxiously awaiting another pay day, the writer being among the number. The boys had lived on rough rations so long they could hardly hold themselves. Now every man has his jelly, jam, applebutter or some other delicacy to spread on his bread—not hard tack, for we haven't had any tack for a month and don't want any. The boys lived in clover for the first few days and not a few are already broke. Many lost out shooting craps and in other forms of gambling, while many claim to have won already twice their original salary. Money flows as freely on the old Chickamauga battle ground as once blood ran swiftly. Over $2,500,000 were paid out to the soldiers stationed here and all in crisp new bills.

Sword Handles.

Sword and hilt handles are the fashionable finish to the umbrella of the moment. They are not particularly pretty nor easy to grasp, nor in any other way appealing to the taste and comfort, but they savor of "the military," and that is all that is asked for nowadays. Most of the libraries have found it necessary to make up a list of books upon something pertaining in the remotest way to Spain and the Spanish. The demand for "Don Quixote," both at bookshop and library, is enormous. Those who never read the romance before are convinced that now is the accepted time for doing so, while those to whom it is a three-fold tale take pleasure in renewing the acquaintance at such an appropriate season.—St. Louis Republic.

Just What We Need.

The Americans, with the position they assume in the world as protectors of two continents, need a fleet as large as that of France, and an army of 50,000 men so over-officered in all grades, and so over-supplied with artillery, engineers and transport, that it can be expanded at a month's notice with trained reservists to 150,000 men. This is by no means a large fleet for so powerful a state as the union, seated on two great oceans, with an immense length of coast, and with a policy and aspirations which can be fulfilled only by strength at sea. It is a very small army in proportion to population, hardly more than one-half of what Great Britain thinks indispensable, after striking out of the account the force she maintains in India and the colonies.—London Spectator.

The White Elephants of Kansas.

Courthouses were built with little regard for the needs of the counties. Out in western Kansas is a courthouse costing $20,000. With scarcely a load of wood in the county, there is a handsome fireplace in every office. The total population of the county is but 1,800, and the bonds of the county have not yet been reduced. Several courthouses, through the process of mechanics' liens and other legal processes, have come to be owned by individuals, who have been puzzled to know what to do with them.—Charles Moreau, in Harper's Magazine.

A Liquid Air Explosive.

When liquid air containing from 40 to 50 per cent. of oxygen is mixed with powdered charcoal it forms an explosive which is said to be comparable to dynamite and can be exploded by means of a detonator. This new explosive has been tested in a coal mine at Penzberg, Germany. The liquid air evaporates so rapidly that the explosive cannot be stored, but must be used within a few minutes after it is prepared.—Youth's Companion.

Two Ways of Looking at It.

"Mr. Addemar," said Mr. Spotcash, severely, to the bookkeeper, "I have spoken to you before of your careless manner of smoking in the office. You threw a lighted match in the waste basket a little while ago, and it set a lot of papers on fire. Such work as that might start a big blaze some day."

"It was heedless," replied the bookkeeper. "I will see that the office boy keeps that waste basket empty hereafter."—Chicago Tribune.

Louisiana.

The province of Louisiana was granted to Anthony Crozat for 15 years by Louis XIV, September 14, 1712, afterward to the Western company (Company of the Indies) for 25 years, and was then ceded back to the crown in 1730; to Spain, February 10, 1763. Formal possession was given August 17, 1769; Louisiana receded to France by treaty of St. Ildefonso, October 1, 1800.

A Summer Story.

Aunt Harriet—for mercy's sake, where have you and Mr. Sweetser been all the afternoon?

Miss Knice—Oh, we have only been hunting for four-leaved clover. We have had such a lovely time!

"And how many four-leaved clovers did you find?"

"Why, come to think of it, we didn't find any, did we, Charley?"—Boston Transcript.

No Danger.

"I would worry less about Henpeck going to war," said his fond mother, "if he could only speak Spanish. It might save his life some time."

"Don't you worry about him," snapped Mrs. Henpeck. "He'll never get near enough the Spaniards to talk to them."—Detroit Free Press.

A Late Visitor.

"We heard a burglar at our window last night, and what do you think my wife said?"

"Goodness knows—what was it?"

"She said: 'Don't scare him off, Henry—maybe he can tell us some war news.'"—Detroit Free Press.

Later Compensation.

Mrs. Highborn (reading)—Diamonds are now found very far below the surface.

Mr. Highborn—Well, they seem to get high enough afterward.—Jeweler's Weekly.

Shut Out by the War.

Customer—I want a watch that will withstand the usage of a healthy 12-year-old boy.

Jeweler—Sorry; but the armor mills are now all busy with government contracts.—Jeweler's Weekly.

The Only Way He Knew.

Kind Old Party (to sobbing urchin)—My little lad, you shouldn't cry that way.

Urchin—How's thunder kin I ery any other way?—Judge.

Hard to Suit.

Moses Levi—Dot shentleman vas hard to suit alrett.

Jakey Levi—Vell, I should say dot, too; he weighed dree hundred bounds an' was bowlegged.—Up to Date.

A Town in Chili.

In the town of Chili most shops are open till midnight, and during the hot afternoons, when everybody takes a siesta, they are locked up.

SECOND KENTUCKY

HAD MONEY TO BURN FOR A FEW DAYS.

CAMP THOMAS, GA., July 15.—The boys of the Second Kentucky, as well as the whole "turn out" of Camp Thomas, have gotten rid of that tired feeling and it didn't take Hood's Saraparilla to do it either. Uncle Sam was the fellow. Pay day has come and gone and not a few are anxiously awaiting another pay day, the writer being among the number. The boys had lived on rough rations so long they could hardly hold themselves. Now every man has his jelly, jam, applebutter or some other delicacy to spread on his bread—not hard tack, for we haven't had any tack for a month and don't want any. The boys lived in clover for the first few days and not a few are already broke. Many lost out shooting craps and in other forms of gambling, while many claim to have won already twice their original salary. Money flows as freely on the old Chickamauga battle ground as once blood ran swiftly. Over $2,500,000 were paid out to the soldiers stationed here and all in crisp new bills.

The Second Kentucky has at least smelled powder, if not blood. We had our first sham battle the other day. It is said several of the boys got sick, but I am glad to state there was no one in Co. H. Sham battles are now every day occurrences. The drilling of new recruits continues each day and they are fast catching on to soldier's life, already many of them having been placed in rank with the company.

We have been drilling some in regimental formation the past week, have had one regimental skirmish drill and one sham battle. Drill hours have been changed so we are not out during the hot part of the day. We go out in the morning at 6 o'clock, come in at 8 and don't go out again until 6, which is after supper, and return at 7:30. We are on the drill grounds 3½ hours out of 24 and we rest at least one-third of the time allotted to drill work.

A large majority of us are tiring of camp life at Chickamauga and are wanting to see service. They are pinning for only a chance at the Dons and what they would do for them would be a plenty. There are very few indeed that wouldn't rather have been with the Rough Riders and the 71st New York.

There is not a doubt in my mind that the Second Kentucky has been badly treated. We were the first to leave home, the first to be equipped and are said to be the best drilled regiment from the Blue Grass State, yet we are the last of the original three slated to go to the front. The Second Kentucky belongs to the first brigade, second division of the third corps. The first brigade, composed of the 1st Arkansas, 2d Kentucky and 9th N. Y. are under Brig. Gen. Fred Grant, son of the great general. He is a perfect image of his illustrious father and he was reduced in rank from major to brigadier general at his own request, in order that the 2d Kentucky and 9th New York could be under his command. The general has been over to see us twice.

Lytle continues to grow in a business sense of the word. There are about 500 business shacks in the magic city and only two residences and one general store. The government has erected some large commissary and other supply buildings. A large postoffice building has been erected just for the soldier's mail. There are two postoffices, one at Lytle and the other Chickamauga Park, and they are not over 200 yards apart. There are said to be something like 300,000 pieces of mail matter handled daily in the Park.

There are several theatres in the Park, in fact anything you can find in a first-class Metropolitan City.

Sunday there were something like 20 deaths here, but not one belonged to our regiment. There are few of our boys in the hospital and none are seriously ill. There isn't better order in Stanford than there is in the "White City" of Georgia.

There is not another regiment in camp that is so shut in as the 2d Kentucky. As to outside liberty we hardly have the privilege of a convict. On the 4th we couldn't get out of our regimental quarters, all on account of a few "rowdies," who made too free uses of their pass. No blame can be put at the door of either Col. Gaither or those under him. I believe they are doing what they think is best.

The recent victories on land and sea and the gallantry of the gallant Hobson have brought many cheers from the "boys in blue" in old Camp Thomas.

CLARENCE COLEMAN.

A Western Kentucky weather prophet says if the katydid's first appearance has any influence on weather conditions, we will have frost by the 25th of next September, that insect's lullaby having been first heard on the 25th, and it is asserted that the first frost falls 90 days thereafter. He also says the hornets are nesting low and wild grapes grow in clusters, unfailing signs that next winter will be a hard one.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for years and always with good results," says Mr. W. B. Cooper, of El Rio, Cal. "For small children we find it especially effective." For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so. Friends urged me to use Dr. Ayer's Hair Vigor restores gray or faded hair to its normal color, stops hair from falling, and makes it grow, is because it supplies the nourishment the hair needs.
